

Nancy R. Kirsch, PT, DPT, PhD, FAPTA is a professor of physical therapy and Director of the Doctor of Physical Therapy Program at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. She currently serves on the Board of Physical Therapy Examiners, Division of Consumer Affairs in New Jersey. She is President of the Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy, and served as Chair of the national APTA Reference Committee and Ethics and Judicial Committee. Most recently she served on the Imaging in PT Task Force and Scope of Practice Task Force. She is on the faculty of ProBE a national ethics remediation program.

Dr. Kirsch presents on topics in ethics and risk management on the national level at APTA and other professional meetings.

Her academic and research interest is professional behavior and ethical decision making and she is determined to help the professional community become engaged in this dialogue.

Dr. Kirsch writes a monthly column in PT in Motion Magazine, called Ethics in Practice.

